

22 km of lighting scenography (Orléans, France)

Lighting design for the second tramway line in the Orleans Metropolitan Area. The whole line unfolds as a route punctuated by lighting events, from the city center to the outskirts. The lighting turns tramway stations, buildings, public spaces, vegetation... into eye-catchers that shape perspectives and create a complete light environment, both cozy and cohesive.

| | |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| contracting authority agglomération orléanaise | budget 138 000 000 € e VAT |
| architects Dubus Richez - snc lavallin | surface area 21 km |
| lighting designer l'atelier lumière - Lucas Goy | competition 2008 |
| | completion 2012 |