

Contemporary lighting into an heritage museum (Morlaix France)

The town of Morlaix has designated our team, led by Atelier Novembre architects, contest winner for the rehabilitation of the art museum. The museum is located into a built heritage, with great value. We develop three lighting moods for different sequences of the museum. The project proposes a soft mutation, mastered but nevertheless visible, that helps to organise the site with consistency and sensitivity.

contracting authority
City of Morlaix
architecture
Atelier Novembre
lighting design
les éclairieurs

surface area
3 000 sq.m
budget
5 500 000 € e VAT
completion 2021